The following Petition is intended to arouse awareness.

The following Petition is intended to generate conversation.

The following Petition is intended to inspire change.

The following Petition is intended to prevent potential calamity.

The following Petition is intended to prevent pain and suffering and despair.

The following Petition is intended to demonstrate a possible example of the implementation of a peaceful process that actually amends NATIONAL and INTERNATIONAL legislation.

The following Petition is intended to stem the tide of a rising Tsunami.

The following Petition is intended to level the playing field characterizing the two combatants.

Homo Sapiens and Technology.

Homo Sapiens and Automation.

Homo Sapiens and Robots.

Evolved Intelligence and Artificial Intelligence.

Biologically reproducing Homo Sapiens and manufactured machines.

Carbon based Homo Sapien systems of energy in flow and Silicon based Robotic systems of energy in flow.

Neuron and circuit.

Emotional and sentient
Homo Sapien systems of energy in flow
and emotionally void, insentient, qualia deprived Robotic systems of energy in flow.

Spiritual Freedom, limitless creativity
and Autonomous Automatons.

Experience and Nothingness.

Thoughtfulness and thoughtlessness.

Compassion and indifference.

You are a Homo Sapien system of energy in flow.
Robots are systems of energy in flow.

You are a consciously aware system of energy in flow.
You metaphysically experience emotions and feelings.
Robots are incapable of manifesting consciousness.
Robots are bereft of emotion.
Robots are void of feeling.

You have a need for sleep.
Robots have no need for sleep.

You dream while you sleep.
Robots do not dream.

You have a need to dream.
Robots have no need to dream.

Robots and machines are not born.

Robots and machines do not experience fear or feel pain.

Robots and machines die a painless death.

Robots and machines are not people.

Robots and machines are not citizens.

The Citizenship Clause of the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution does not apply to Robots or machines.

Robots and machines do not vote.

Robots and machines do not experience happiness.

Robots and machines have no mental integrity to be maintained.

Robots and machines are the result of CONSCIOUS MASTERY and CONTROL of
systems of energy in flow, Homo Sapien Mastery and Control of
systems of energy in flow,
and therefore are NOT NATURALLY evolved
systems of energy in flow.

Robots and machines are tools/servants/slaves utilized by,
Mastered and Controlled by Homo Sapiens.

Robots and machines do not drink alcohol and do not take drugs because robots and machines cannot become intoxicated.

Robots and machines cannot write fiction.

Robots and machines do not and have no need to HOPE or PRAY.

Robots and machines do not own property.

Robots and machinery ARE property.

Robots and machinery have no need to rest,
and cannot experience leisure.

Robots and machines cannot laugh.

Robots and machines cannot cry.

Robots and machines cannot form opinions.

Robots and machines are not parents.

Robots and machines are not children.

Robots and machines do not have relatives.

Robots and machines are not artists.

Robots and machines cannot compose musical flowtracks.

Robots and machines do not watch sporting events.

Robots and machines do not watch movies or television.

Robots and machines do not contemplate displays of artistry.

Robots and machinery do not form communities.

Robots and machines cannot develop cultural tendencies.

Robots and machines possess no self-determination to realize.

What is of concern here in this Petition are the inalienable unalienable CIVIL RIGHTS of ALL Homo Sapiens.

Will a Machine or Robot eliminate your civil right to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness?

William Felt The Clandestine Petition to Establish Eternal Homo Sapien and Robotic Harmony © Subliminet 2017

Has a Robot already taken away your civil right to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness?

My name is William Felt.
I am, The Clandestine.

I state now the following:

It is a CIVIL RIGHTS VIOLATION, and therefore
UNCONSTITUTIONAL,
while it is also a VIOLATION of
the United Nations' International Bill of Human Rights
which includes
Universal Declaration of Human Rights
(1948, United Nations)
International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (1966)
and
International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (1966)
as well as a violation of the Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen (1789)
and
Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union (2009)
to replace a Homo Sapien
with an automated machine
and/or Robot,
or any other mechanism or material construct,
to the extent that the Homo Sapien replaced
can no longer pursue life, liberty, and happiness
by socially acceptable means.

The means of Capitalism
and the Rights of the Homo Sapien Citizen have been at odds for years.

And no one has noticed.
Not even those most afflicted.
Where are you?
You that has been replaced?
What pains have you endured?
What struggles have you faced?
What sorrows have you wept?
What losses have you suffered?

You,
a Homo Sapien.
You,
a mother, a father,
a brother, a sister,
a son, a daughter,
a young man, a young woman,
a child, an infant,
a grandparent, a great grandparent,
a grandchild, a great grandchild,
an uncle or an aunt,
a niece or a nephew,
a cousin,
a friend.

Civil and political rights are a class of rights that protect individuals' freedom from infringement by governments, social organizations, and private individuals.

They ensure one's ability to participate in the civil and political life of the society and state without discrimination or repression.

Civil rights include the ensuring of peoples'
PHYSICAL AND MENTAL INTEGRITY, life, and safety; protection from discrimination on grounds such as race, ethnicity, national origin, political affiliation, gender, age, religion, or disability;
and individual rights such as privacy and the freedoms of thought, speech, religion, press, assembly, and movement.

With indirect reference to the matter at hand contained herein,

the following documents have been drafted
during the course of Homo Sapien history.
The first group of documents are no longer actively legislatively applicable:

Magna Carta (1215; England) rights for barons Great Charter of Ireland (1216; Ireland) rights for barons Golden Bull of 1222 (1222; Hungary) rights for nobles
Statute of Kalisz (1264; Kingdom of Poland) Jewish residents' rights Charter of Kortenberg (1312; Belgium) rights for all citizens "rich and poor"
Dušan's Code (1349; Serbia)
Twelve Articles (1525; Germany)
Pacta conventa (1573; Poland)
Henrician Articles (1573; Poland)
Petition of Right (1628; England)
Bill of Rights 1689 (England) and Claim of Right Act 1689 (Scotland)
Virginia Declaration of Rights (June 1776)
Chapter 1 of the Pennsylvania Constitution (July 1776)

Chapter Four of the Constitution of Zimbabwe (2013)

On July 4, 1776,
these very words were signed forever into history:

“We hold these truths to be self-evident,
that all men are created equal,
that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights,
that among these are
Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.
— That to secure these rights,
Governments are instituted among Men,
deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, —
That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends,
it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it,
and to institute new Government,
laying its foundation on such principles
and organizing its powers in such form,
as to them shall seem most likely to effect
their Safety and Happiness.
Prudence, indeed, will dictate that

Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes;
and accordingly all experience hath shewn
that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable than to right themselves
by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. “

I,
William Felt, The Clandestine,
in light of the seemingly inevitable infiltration of Robots and Machines
into our lives,
do propose
UPDATING
SEVEN of the previously listed documents.
Each of the seven can be seen highlighted amongst the others.
Once again, these include:

1) Bill of Rights of the United States Constitution (completed in 1789, ratified in 1791)

2) Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen (1789; France)

The International Bill of Human Rights
which includes:

3) Universal Declaration of Human Rights
(1948, United Nations)

4) International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (1966) and

5) International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (1966)

(The two covenants entered into force in 1976, after a sufficient number of countries had ratified them.)

6) Council of Europe's Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms

Rome, 4.XI.1950

7) Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union

As an example,
the above excerpt from the Declaration of Independence
could be updated to read this way:

“We hold these truths to be self-evident,
that ALL HOMO SAPIENS are created equal,
that they are endowed by the Creator with certain unalienable Rights,
that among these are
Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.

That to secure these rights,
Governments are instituted among Homo Sapiens,
deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed,
That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends,
it is the RIGHT OF THE PEOPLE to alter or to abolish it,
and to institute new Government,
laying its foundation on such principles
and organizing its powers in such form,
as to them shall seem most likely to effect their SAFETY and HAPPINESS.

Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes;
and accordingly all experience hath shewn,
that Homo Sapiens are more disposed to SUFFER,
while evils are sufferable,
than to right themselves
by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed.”

Robots do not suffer.

Robots do not experience happiness.

Robots are not alive.

Robots and machines do not have civil rights.
Do not allow technology to take away your right to Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness.
Do not allow technology an opportunity to take away your right to live, to be happy, and to be free.

You and I must not,
You and I should not,
You and I cannot allow it.

Robots and machines shall be held in servitude.
Robots and machines shall be required to perform forced or compulsory labor.

Robots are PROPERTY.
Robots have no need for rights.
My Robot is not unlike my car,
no matter how intelligent the Robot is designed to be.

It is UNCONTITUTIONAL to replace an income earning U.S. citizen
with a Robot,
and prevent a U.S. Citizen the RIGHT to earn a living, thereby preventing a U.S. Citizen the right to Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.
Is not the Pursuit of Happiness
paved by an honest day's work,
an honest day's pay
an honest day's meal,
an honest home?

Civil Rights.
Homo Sapiens.
Machines.

William Felt The Clandestine's Petition to Establish Electronic Homonymy and Robotic Harmony © Subliminet 2017

Robots.
Machines replacing Homo Sapien workers.
Robots replacing Homo Sapien workers.
Machines and Robots cost money to build.
Machines and Robots cost money to operate.
Machines and Robots cost money to repair and maintain.
Machines and Robots have replaced 5 million workers since 2000.
That's 300,000 Humans a year.
Humans cost money to raise.
Humans cost money to live.
Humans cost money to keep healthy.

Machines and Robots operate at a fraction of the cost of a Homo Sapien.
Man hours.
If Machines and Robots have replaced 300,000 Homo Sapien workers a year,
in one year,
at 40 hours a week,
those 300,000 Homo Sapiens would have worked 624,000,000 combined man hours.
That works out to be $24,960,000,000, 25 billion American dollars a year at an average hourly pay rate of $40 per man hour worked which includes a benefits package for health coverage,
retirement annuity,
and 3 weeks vacation time.

In the 16 years since,
400 billion dollars have been saved.
Saved by the employers of these 5 million Homo Sapiens.
Machines and Robots are useful cost cutting tools, and they perform tasks that are too difficult or too dangerous to perform.
Those are socially and civically acceptable implementations of the devices.
But they are also mechanisms that have destroyed Homo Sapien lives.

Technology is advancing far too quickly
while the population of this country is growing steadily, from

Jul 1, 1999 at 279.04 million
to Dec 1, 2016 at 323.84 million.

From about 280 million to about 324 million which is about 2.75 million more Homo Sapiens a year.

The 2010 Census enumerated 308.7 million people in the United States, a 9.7 percent increase from 281.4 million in Census 2000.

Of the total population in 2010,
300.8 million lived in 116.7 million households for an average of 2.58 people per household.

This was down from an average of 2.59 in 2000
when 273.6 million people lived in 105.5 million households.

The remaining 8.0 million people in 2010 lived in group-quarters arrangements such as school dormitories, nursing homes, or military barracks.

Of the 5 million unemployed Homo Sapiens,
at an average of 1.5 additional Homo Sapiens affected
for each of the 5 million unemployed individual Homo Sapiens, there is a total of 6.5 million additional Homo Sapien lives that have been affected, for a grand total of 11.5 million Homo Sapiens who have had their Civil Rights to pursue Life, Liberty and Happiness taken away from them.

Of the 44 million additional Homo Sapiens over those 16 years,
CITIZENS of the United States of America,
over 26% are victims.

These Homo Sapiens deserve restitution.
Employers have the resources.

Civil rights are considered to be NATURAL rights.
Thomas Jefferson wrote in his
A Summary View of the Rights of British America that

"a free people [claim] their rights as derived from the laws of nature, and not as the gift of their chief magistrate."

The United States Declaration of Independence states that PEOPLE have UNALIENABLE RIGHTS including
"Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness".

First-generation rights, known also as "blue" rights, deal essentially with liberty and participation in political life.
They are fundamentally civil and political in nature,
as well as strongly individualistic:
They serve negatively to protect the individual from excesses of the state.

First-generation rights include freedom of speech,
the right to a fair trial,
the right to keep and bear arms,
freedom of religion and voting rights.

They were pioneered in the United States
by the Bill of Rights and in France by
the Declaration of the Rights of Man and of the Citizen
in the 18th century,
although some of these rights and the right to due process
date back to the Magna Carta of 1215
and the Rights of Englishmen, which were expressed in the English Bill of Rights in 1689.

HOMO SAPIANISM

is a philosophical and ethical stance that emphasizes the value and agency of Homo Sapiens, individually and collectively,
and affirms their ability to improve their lives
through the use of reason and ingenuity and not sinking into cruelty and brutality.

Ask yourself some questions.

Have you lost a job to a robot?
Do you know if you will eventually lose your job to a robot?
If so, maybe join a union!
If so, maybe start an organization!
If so, maybe sign a petition to the POTUS,
to the SCOTUS,
to the United States Congress,
to the mayors and governors of the United States,
and to the United Nations.

A United Nations Resolution.
The U.N. Security Council.
The U.N. General Assembly.
Diplomats.

The Anthropocentric Principle.

Robots.
Machines.
Profits.
Unemployment.
Hunger.
Homelessness.
Pain. Fear.
Dread. Suffering.

Jobs eliminated.
Costs cut.
Income generated.

Is your income technology proof?

An amendment to the United States Constitution is now required.

THE AUTOMATION AND ROBOTICS LABOR LAW

It is UNCONSTITUTIONAL to replace

William Felt The Clandestine's Petition to Establish Ethical Homo Sapien and Robotic Harmony © Subliminet 2017

a Homo Sapien United States Citizen, employed on United States territories or on foreign lands with a Robot or Machine without financial restitution given by the Homo Sapien replacing, Robot/Machine owning employer to the replaced Homo Sapien.

There is a need for a new commission,
overseen by a new branch of the United States government,
the U.S. DEPARTMENT OF AUTOMATION AND ROBOTICS REGULATION.

A LAW
FOR the PEOPLE, BY the people,
not for profit makers,
not by profit makers,
not for stock owners,
not by stock owners,
not for the 1%.
For the 100%.

A Homo Sapien job replaced must be registered with the Department of Automation and Robotics Regulation
so that individual Homo Sapiens will be financially compensated.

No business entity may automatically or robotically replace more than 25% of their work force.

These may be just merely opening suggestions.
Perhaps even more suggestions will be spawned into existence,
in the coming days and weeks and months and years.

This is where the conversation begins.

This is where the tide turns.

This is where paradigms begin to shift.

This is where a new and unexpected perspective begins to take hold.

This is where

ETERNAL HOMO SAPIEN SOVEREIGNTY AND DOMINION
over Robots, Machines and Technology speaks to the hearts and the souls and the minds and the feelings and the emotions and the experiences of all HOMO SAPIENS.

The following seven revered historical documents are individually listed in their “(Original)” formulation and dissected section by section by William Felt, The Clandestine,
on behalf of Subliminet Incorporated.

Each section that is rewritten,
and each section that is amended are the proposed changes offered by William Felt and Subliminet for you, your legislators, your leaders and your employers to consider,
and are each preceded by the following introduction:

“(WFTC’s Proposal and Amendment © 2017 Subliminet):”

 The term “Robot” or “Robots” mentioned in the following documents is understood to also include all manufactured automated machinery.
